OPEN COMMUNICATION

1. Norma Jones update on community group Missions at Hand; within Ballard School district. They assist with food and clothing when needed for local families. Local Churches have provided support as well. The Ballard Enterprise club also collects food items and monetary gifts for families. Adrian Bank & Adrian Optimist also assisted with help on the backpack program. As many as 27 backpacks with food sent out a week. Churches assisted with purchase of coats, hoodies, hat & gloves for families. Have been able to assist when needed with emergencies such as utilities needed. She would like to continue serving the community and wants to have the boards support to continue. Board agrees the program is a great project in our community and would appreciate her continued involvement.
