BALLARD R-II SCHOOL
Fourth Edition December 19, 2019

From the Principal's Desk....

Dear Ballard Families,

The students are very excited as we prepare for our Christmas Break. We are fortunate to have such a great group of students, staff members, and community to help put on a great Breakfast with Santa, Christmas Concert, Grandparents Luncheon, and Santa's Workshop. Our break begins on Friday, December 20, at 1:05pm and school resumes on Tuesday, January 7. We are hopeful that the recent blasts of cold weather and snow are not a sign of things to come but we would like to mention that outdoor gear should include: a warm jacket, mittens/gloves, hat/hood, and any other warm items that would be appropriate. If you send the gear, we will do our best to ensure that your student wears it.

It is very possible that there will be more snow/ice days coming soon and there are several places to find out if school has been cancelled due to inclement weather. The local TV stations should display this information. KCTV5, KMBC-TV9, FOX4-, WDAF-TV, and KSHB-TV are all included as well as their affiliates. That means that the following channels should have school closing information: 4, 5, 8, 38, and 41. There are also several radio stations that announce school closings, including KDKD Radio (95.3 FM, 1280 AM, and 104.9 FM) and KMOE (92.1 FM). A third location for Ballard School closing announcements is our school website and Facebook page, which is www.ballardr2.net. Cancellations will also be sent out on "Remind", as well as Mid America Live. (to enroll in "Remind" for the high school remind messages please text @ballardhig to 81010, and for elementary reminds messages please text @ballardele to 81010)

Have a wonderful holiday season with your family and friends. See you in 2020!

With Great Appreciation,
Mr. Dustin L. Bridges, Principal

“YES, VIRGINIA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS”

Eight-year-old Virginia O’Hanlon wrote a letter to the editor of New York’s Sun, and the quick response was printed as an unsigned editorial Sept. 21, 1897. The work of veteran newsman Francis Pharcellus Church has since become history’s most reprinted newspaper editorial, appearing in part or whole in dozens of languages in books, movies, and other editorials, and on posters and stamps.

DEAR EDITOR: I am 8 years old.
Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.
Papa says, ‘If you see it in THE SUN it’s so.’
Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus?

VIRGINIA O’HANLON.
115 WEST NINETY-FIFTH STREET.

VIRGINIA, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe unless they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men’s or children’s, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, VIRGINIA, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus. It would be as dreary as if there were no VIRGINIAS. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that’s no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world. You may tear apart the baby’s rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, VIRGINIA, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! He lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Trendy Third

Ms. Kabir

The third graders were asked what they would do if Santa Claus got stuck in their chimney, here's how they answered...

One night on Christmas, I heard a thud, bells jingling and clip clop, clip clop, clip clop. I put on my coat and boots and I went outside and looked up and saw a reindeer and a sleigh. I went inside and looked up the chimney and saw Santa. I hurried to help him but he was still stuck. I woke up Ellee, my sister, and we both pulled and pulled then all of a sudden Plop he came out. But he was not there! I checked in the chimney, but he was not there! I checked his sleigh, but it was gone too. I went to bed with my sister. We woke up and hurried to the living room. We saw a big present and on the card it said "thank you." But it did not say who it was from. We opened the present and it was a sleigh and scooter, and new coats. We went outside to play, my grandma was watching us. The End.

Emmalee Scott

If Santa got stuck in the chimney I would try to help. I would try to pull him out. But if I can't I'll ask the reindeer. And the reindeer should help. Maybe at one point he will slide out.

Zayden Miller

If Santa got stuck in the chimney I would grab his feet and pull. If that didn't work than I would get a reindeer to help get him out. He gave me a lot of presents for helping him.

Ian Campbell

If Santa got stuck in my chimney would help him to get out. And if that didn't work, I would go upon the roof and try to push him out instead. If that didn't work, I would go inside to pry him out, when I got him out we would be so happy, and he would give everyone presents.

Aspyn Eidson

If Santa got stuck in my chimney, I would try to pull him out. First I would climb up on the roof and then I would tie a rope to his feet and I'd tie the other end to the reindeer and tell them to pull. Santa would pop right out, then he'll have to use my door. He'd be so happy that he'd let me ride along with him to deliver presents.

Waylon Chrisman

If Santa got stuck I would put water at the top of the chimney so it would loosen him from the chimney then I would get the thing that holds the reindeer then give it to Santa and tell them to pull so Santa would get out. That is what I would do if Santa got stuck.

Lane Meade

If Santa got stuck in the chimney I'd build a Robo-Cat that would grab Santa and my Robo-Cat would pull him out. Then it would breathe fire and it would melt the snow to make a runway. Then I would pick a present. Five months later I'm working on a chimney making it bigger so he could fit in the chimney. So the next Christmas I'd get extra presents.

Braydon Siebeneck

I would ask the reindeer to help pull Santa out, but if that didn't work, I would sneak into the sleigh and find the elves phone number and ask them for their help. If that didn't work then I would go and deliver the gifts myself, after that I'd help Santa Claus, I would get the elves, reindeer and me to help pull him out. After he was free I'd tell him to start eating healthy stuff.

Festive Fifth

The Fifth grade class was assigned to write a paragraph saying if they could give a perfect gift what would it be and who would you give it to.

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a quad-pod to my Dad.

I choose this because my dad likes them better than a tree stand or blind, and he would put a heater in it for hunting if it was cold.

Payson Hill

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a huge hug to my Mom.

I choose this because she takes care of me all the time if I don't feel good, even if she has to work. She also takes me to the store when I need stuff for school and she is really nice to me.

Maribel Arredondo

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be one million stickers to Olivia.

I choose this because she is my best friend and she would do anything for me so I want that chance too.

Chrystal Evans

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a big hug to my Mom.

I choose this because she never gets a big hug.

Noah Bales

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a dog to my Dad.

I choose this because his dog ran away and I think he would really like that.

Madison Gunter

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a drawing that I made to Mom.

I choose this because she likes it when I draw stuff for her and she's loving, caring, and helpful for me and I love her with all my heart.

Macie Wainscott

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be expensive necklaces to my sister.

I choose this because she is my only sister and because I love her.

Bradley Bergschneider

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be many Reese's Pieces to Crystal.

I choose this because she is one of my best friends. She also means a lot to me.

Olivia Porter

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be art supplies to Kendle.

I choose this because I barely get to see her and she loves to draw. She lives in Butler but when we are gone she is home and when we are home she is gone.

Ashton Siebeneck

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a new coffee cup to Mom.

I choose this because I think she will like another cup.

Keslyn Page

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a home-made, hardback, 25 chapter book made by me with 346 pages to my Mom.

I choose this because it would be fun to make a book like that and also because I would love to surprise her like that.

Kennedy Borland

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be Pokémon to Luke.

I choose this because he loves Pokémon and no one wants to give him Pokémon.

Daxtyn Greer

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a box of beads and some art supplies to my friend Kylee.

I choose this because we are really great friends, we go to VBS together, and we were buddies for Kamp Keirsey.

Abigail Bergen

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a hug to Mom.

I choose this because she is awesome and she does so much for me. She does my laundry, she cooks for me, she gave me her old phone, she cleans the house, and she took me to the doctor when I broke my nose. She does all this for me and she only wants a hug.

Luke Meade

If I could give one perfect gift to someone it would be a new shop to my Dad.

I choose this because my dad works really hard, and we could use it and it would be great for bull sales. Also my Dad doesn't get appreciation over what he does. I love my Dad so much I don't know what I would do without him.

Maggie Foster

Savage Sixth

Ms. Eidson

The Sixth Grade class was assigned to do "If I Were a Gift" and this is what they said...

If I were a gift, I'd be a camera. I would be a camera because I could replay the funniest things that were caught on camera. I would see all of the pictures and videos.

Lilly Chrisman

If I were a gift, I would be a fiction book so I could give kids the joy of reading. I love reading so much. Reading is my favorite thing to do. That is why I would want to be a book.

Autumn Hastings

If I were a gift, I would be a bolt action 22 Marlin. I would be the 22 because I could make a 7-year-old happy by getting to shoot squirrels, rabbits, crows, and coyotes.

Cash Anderson

If I were a gift, I would be a book so that people can read me and so I can be in the story. I could see what's actually happening in the book.

Valencia Landeros

If I were a gift, I would be a diary because I would get to know everyone's deepest secrets.

Celia Campbell

If I were a gift, I would be a pump shotgun. I would be this so that the kid that got me for Christmas would have fun hunting.

Dayne Greer

If I were a gift, I'd be a shell necklace or a scrunchy. I think it would be fun to always have a friend to be with. It would be cool to be an awesome gift.

Haley Pray

If I were a gift, I would be kindness. I would be kindness because too many people feel they can be mean and people should just accept it. I would teach people how to treat others the way they want to be treated regardless of how the other people treat them.

Ms. Eidson

If I were a gift, I would be a Samsung Galaxy 8. I would be a Samsung Galaxy 8 because it is a good reliable phone that I could use.

Art Class

Mrs. Larcom

All Art classes have been busy working on the table decorations for the Grandparents lunch. I love to see the creative touches the students put on their projects.

The High School Art students took a field trip to the Nelson Atkins Museum of Art where they learned about 3D printing and the software program called Tinkercad that is used to create the pieces of art made with the printer. After walking throughout the museum to find inspiration, they were able to design their own mask using the Tinkercad program. I hope everyone has a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Grandparents Come to Ballard

On Friday, December 13, the Ballard School held their annual Grandparent's Luncheon. The lunch began with the dismissing of the elementary to go through the lunch line first with their grandparents. After the elementary finished eating, they were sent to their individual rooms to show their grandparents what they made for them. Then it was the High School student's turn to enjoy the lunch with their grandparents.

The lunch consisted of ham, cheesy potatoes, green beans, rolls, and for desert, brownies and ice-cream. The sixth grade class was in charge of the drinks and clearing plates when the grandparents finished. They did an amazing job!

The gym was filled with laughter. It was an afternoon of fun and excitement! Thank you for coming to this year's luncheon, the students had a lot of fun.

Ballard Students Put On a Show

On Thursday, December 12, the elementary music and band classes plus the high school band gathered in the gym in front of their friends and family to put on a very enjoyable performance. The students performed a play about Christmas travelers that got stuck at an airport. They decided to make good out of bad and tell each other stories about their Christmas traditions.

The show was a success over all. Mrs. Lybarger was sure to thank everyone who helped with the program. We thank everyone that came to the Christmas concert and hope to see you all again next year!

They knew they could come back. After the third quarter the boys were tied and they didn't want to go into overtime, because they couldn't risk it. During fourth quarter the tired Ballard boys gave it their all but they let the win slip out of their fingers with a score of 47-52.
